Categories of Member

The Caribbean Council reserves the right to create new categories of Member whenever it considers this to be advantageous to the CC in carrying out its mission. Regular membership will be awarded strictly in accordance with the company size as set out in the price structure.

Membership Fees

Membership fees will fall due annually on April 1st and will be payable in accordance with the terms of a specific invoice sent at that time. If any fee remains unpaid for 28 days from the date notice is given to the Member, the CBBC shall be entitled to suspend or terminate the Membership. In cases where a member joins mid way through a period, a pro-rata fee may be agreed.

Confidential Information

Each Member shall ensure that it does not disclose any Confidential Information, which may come into its possession, custody or control by reason of its Membership. Confidential Information means all data and papers, materials and information in whatever format or medium it is held, which is held or compiled by, or supplied to the Members by the CBBC, and which is identified by the CBBC as being Confidential Information.

Groups of Companies

Where a company that forms part of a group of companies successfully applies for Membership, this does not entitle any parent or subsidiary of the company, or other subsidiary of any such parent to become a Member. Each company within such a group shall be required to apply separately for Membership. For the avoidance of doubt, where a Member is part of a group of companies the Member shall be entitled to share information provided by the CBBC, including Confidential Information, with other companies in the group.

Amendments to the Terms and Conditions.

The Caribbean Council may amend these Terms and Conditions from time to time.
